

sponsored by the Wales Cancer Bank www.walescancerbank.com

Pathological Society Winter Meeting 6-8 January 2010

Satellite Meeting

“Tissue Banking in the NHS – the advantages for Pathology Departments”

Wednesday 6 January 2010,
Imperial College London, South Kensington Campus

09.00 – 10.30 Session I What can tissue banking do for me?

09.00-09.20	The Chief Executive’s perspective	Calum Campbell, CEO ABM Trust
09.20 – 09.40	The BMS perspective	Christine Davies, ABM Trust
09.40 – 10.00	The Pathologist’s perspective	Wynne Williams, ABM Trust
10.00- 10.30	Round table discussion
10.30-11.00	COFFEE

11.00 – 12.30 Session II Practical Tissue Banking

11.00 – 11.20	Getting started	Malcolm Mason, WCB
11.20-11.40	Talking to patients	Suzanne Williams, WCB
11.40-12.00	Management and Governance	Alison Parry-Jones, WCB
12.00-12.30	Round Table discussion
12.30-13.30	LUNCH

13.30- 15.00 Session III – What do researchers want?

13.30 – 14.00	What to collect and is it fit for purpose?	Gerry Thomas, Imperial College
14.00-14.30	What do biotech companies want?	Nessa Carey, Cellcentric
14.30-15.00	What does Big Pharma want?	Chris Womack, AstraZeneca

15.00-15.30 COFFEE

15.30 – 17.00 Session IV – Using tissue banks for research

15.30 – 15.50	Research Tissue Banks and Access policies	Louise Jones, CRUK
15.50-16.20	Research Tissue Banks and Systems Biology in Cancer Research	Kristian Unger, Imperial College
16.20 -17.00	Round Table discussion

Registration fee - £25. Register via: <http://asp.artegis.com/2010WinterDelReg>