Welcome Address

Dear Colleague,

Over the last few months, the European Society of Pathology (ESP) has been assessing the evolution of travelling restrictions, global health reports and confinements associated with the current pandemic. The uncertain projections for the next months have led ESP to the decision to move the 33rd European Congress of Pathology (ECP) to a virtual setting.

It is our great pleasure to invite you to attend the 33rd ECP which will take place as an online congress from 29–31 August 2021.

The motto for the ECP 2021, "Compass for Optimal Patient Therapy" alludes to Gothenburg's strong maritime tradition being the largest port in Sweden. We would have loved to organise a live meeting in Gothenburg, but in order to protect the health and safety of everybody involved in the congress, had to decide for a virtual congress. The ECP 2021 will be the centre for European international diagnostic and academic pathology. Pathologists and their collaborators, molecular biologists, geneticists, bioinformaticians, and information technologists will meet to share recent and important advances in our discipline that offer the latest diagnostic, prognostic and predictive information needed in the best patient care. For ECP 2021, the ESP working groups are busy preparing state-of-the-art organ-based sessions while collaborating pathology and clinical scientific societies will interact in joint scientific events. Exciting topics in the field of molecular pathology, digital pathology, AI in pathology, quality assessment, education and public awareness will be part of the scientific programme. Four keynote lectures by distinguished international experts will highlight fascinating topics in pathology and beyond. Thematic symposia on interstitial lung pathology and molecular findings in salivary gland tumours of diagnostic and predictive importance will take place.

We thank you for your continued support and we look forward to welcoming you to our virtual meeting in August 2021.

► BRIEF DESCRIPTION OF THE ESP

The European Society of Pathology (ESP) was established in 1963 in Brussels and is a leading force in European pathology and, as such, is pivotal to the future of the specialty in Europe and beyond. As a scientific society, the ESP has, as its primary aim, the promotion of high quality diagnostic practice, applied and translational research and under- and postgraduate education in the field of human pathology. This is achieved through its congresses, its journal Virchows Archiv and various other activities. The ESP interacts with national pathology societies in Europe and has developed links with other EU bodies in close collaboration with UEMS (Union Européenne des Médecins Spécialistes) and EAPCP (European Association of Pathology Chairs and Programme Directors).

The European School of Pathology under the auspices of the ESP and with the support of 20 Working Groups and 5 Affiliated Societies representing different fields of pathology is involved in the organisation of courses to meet the needs of young pathologists. The ESP Foundation provides external quality assessment (QA) programmes for several biomarkers. Diagnostic laboratories worldwide participate in the ESP Foundation QA schemes, such as Lung and Colon.

Further Sessions

► ONE-DAY COMPUTATIONAL PATHOLOGY SYMPOSIUM (CP)

The Computational Pathology Symposium will be organized in conjunction with the ECP in 2021 for the sixth time. Previous versions attracted an audience consisting of pathologists, scientists and technicians from hospitals, academia and industry. The symposium aims to be a forum for discussion and exchange of knowledge in the area of computational pathology. We bring together key speakers from both academia and industry to facilitate such interaction in the broadest possible manner. Topics of interest are algorithm development and validation, regulatory and usability issues, and clinical value. Panel discussions and demonstrations may be part of the program in addition to invited speakers and submitted talks. This year, for the second time, we will hand out a 'best paper award' to the highest ranking submitted abstract. The symposium is organized by Jeroen van der Laak, Darren Treanor, Nasir Rajpoot, and Geert Litjens.

Further information will soon be available online at www.esp-congress.org.

► ONE-DAY SYMPOSIUM ON MOLECULAR PATHOLOGY DIAGNOSTICS AND TRANSLATIONAL RESEARCH

We are pleased to invite you for the seventh time to the "Symposium on Molecular Pathology Diagnostics and Translational Research". Our programme for 2021 includes molecular approaches with clinical applications in oncology as well as newest developments of modern technologies like parallel sequencing and the analysis of new biomarkers.

The major goals for scientists working together with pathologists and clinicians in the field are to provide high-quality molecular diagnostics but at the same time to translate basic research discoveries into clinical practice. The symposium will address and discuss current advances but also challenges and problem-solving approaches in the field of molecular pathology. Not only molecular biologists but also pathologists and other participants are more than welcome to join this symposium!

Get the latest insights in precision medicine and how they directly impact testing and treatment decisions.

There will be an additional Joint Session with the WG Molecular Pathology in the main programme dealing with the new IVD regulations.

Organisers:

- Prof. Johan Botling, Department of Immunology Genetics and Pathology, Rudbeck Laboratory Uppsala University Hospital, Uppsala, Sweden
- Dr. Erik Jan Dubbink, Department of Pathology, Erasmus MC, Rotterdam, The Netherlands
- Prof. Dr. Sabine Merkelbach-Bruse, Institute of Pathology, University Hospital Cologne, Germany
- Dr. Bastian Tops, Diagnostic Laboratory, Princess Maxima Center for Pediatric Oncology, Utrecht, the Netherlands

Further information will also be available online at www.esp-congress.org.

The symposium will cover the following topics:

- Pan-cancer strategies for solid tumour diagnostics (Joint Session with WG Molecular Pathology)
- Tumour agnostic approaches
- Integrative diagnostics and IT solutions

► SUBMISSION OF ABSTRACTS

The scientific committee invites you to participate actively in this congress which will be an extraordinary occasion for the exchange of thoughts and experiences. We look forward to receiving abstracts online for consideration and inclusion in the scientific programme as oral or poster presentation or e-Poster.

The submitted abstracts should give a brief description of the title and topic. All abstracts will be reviewed by members of the working groups and/or the scientific committee.

The reviewers will judge the abstracts according to the relevance to ESP, standard of English, objectivity of statement, description of what was done, suitability of methods to aims, conclusions confirmed by objective results, ethics, scientific value, potential clinical value, originality of work and overall impression.

All accepted abstracts will be published in an abstract book which is a digital supplement to Virchows Archiv, and online on the congress website www.esp-congress.org. There will be no printed version of the abstract book.

The deadline for abstract submission is 14 April 2021.

► GUIDELINES FOR PREPARATION OF ABSTRACTS

- Please choose a title that clearly indicates the content of the contribution.
- Please avoid abbreviations in the title (exception: scientific terms). Abbreviations may be used in the text if they are defined when used first.
- Please make sure to use proper English language.
- Please refrain from spelling abstract titles and co-authors' names in capital letters.
- The author's name (full first name, family name) and place of work (institution, city, country) should be indicated in the respective form fields, not in the abstract title.
- Degrees, titles, street addresses and acknowledgements of support should be omitted in the abstract title and text.

To provide maximum information in the abstract please

- state the specific background & objective of the study
- state the methods used, if pertinent
- summarise the results obtained
- state the conclusions reached
- ensure that the abstract does not contain spelling, grammar or scientific errors, as it will be reproduced exactly as submitted.

► GUIDELINES FOR SUBMISSION OF ABSTRACTS

- A maximum of 5 abstracts per author will be accepted for submission. Additional submissions will not be considered (without further notice).
- An abstract which has been previously published cannot be submitted, unless there are new methods, findings, updated data or other acceptable reasons for submitting.
- Abstracts are to be submitted in English, the official language of the 33rd European Congress of Pathology, should not exceed 250 words and be structured in the following specified subtitles: background & objective, methods, results and conclusion.
- Case reports should also be structured as much as possible following the aforementioned categories. If not possible, the authors should upload the abstracts using the most appropriate categories (in the respective text boxes in the submission form).
- The abstract submission constitutes a formal commitment by the first author to present the corresponding presentation in the session and time slot assigned by the scientific committee.
- Changes in authorship should be communicated to the Congress and Exhibition Office at ecp-gothenburg@cpo-hanser.de in order to ensure correct appearance in the printed programme.
- Should the first author, who is considered the presenter, turn out to be unable to present his/her poster one of the co-authors should take over this responsibility. A change of the presenting author needs to be communicated to the Congress and Exhibition Office at ecp-gothenburg@cpo-hanser.de and will only be processed after acceptance of abstracts. Presenter changes, which are being addressed to the Congress and Exhibition Office before the official acceptance notification, will not be considered.
- Registration to the congress is mandatory to be able to present the abstract and get it published in the abstract book – and must be completed by 24 June 2021. If the speaker fails to register and pay before this date, his / her abstract will be excluded from the scientific programme and publication in Virchows Archiv.
- If a delegate has registered upon the condition that his / her abstract is accepted and the abstract is rejected, the registration fee will be refunded. The acceptance of abstracts by the scientific committee does not imply any financial assistance or fee reduction.
- Notification of acceptance or rejection by the scientific committee will be emailed to the first author. Detailed information in which format the abstract is accepted (oral or poster presentation or e-Poster), guidelines and recommendations for each abstract type as well as time allotment, date, hour, and venue will be sent in due time to registered first authors.
